

Amy E. Brown, MS, CADC, LPC, CCTP
80 W. Welsh Pool Road ~ 103S
Exton, PA 19341
610.416.0793

Education:

University of Pennsylvania
MS, Counseling Psychology
1990 – 1991

University of Pennsylvania
BS, Psychology
1986 – 1990

Certifications/Licensure:

NAADAC
Certified Drug and Alcohol Counselor #3024
Initial certification 1996

Pennsylvania Social Work Board
Licensed Professional Counselor #PC024672
Initial licensure 2002

NAADAC
DOT-qualified Substance Abuse Professional (SAP)#20416
Initial certification 2014

IATP
Certified Clinical Trauma Professional
Initial certification 2017

Experience:

Independent Mental Health Clinician
Privately owned office
1991– Present

Provide individual, group, and family therapy for clients struggling with mental health and substance abuse issues. Provide DOT-SAP assessments as well as evaluations for school and legal purposes. Specializing in dual-diagnosis, adolescents, and young adults.

Director of Adolescent Services
Mirmont Treatment Center
Lima, PA
1999– 2000

Recruited to develop and implement adolescent programming. Created and directed adolescent dual-diagnosis inpatient unit and implemented adolescent partial hospitalization program. Supervised clinical and adjunct staff. Provided on-site trainings and presented at outside agencies. Achieved 3-fold increase in adolescent admissions.

Amy E. Brown, MS, CADAC, LPC, CCTP
80 W. Welsh Pool Road ~ 103S
Exton, PA 19341
610.416.0793

Interim Site Supervisor and Director of Adolescent Services
Advantage Recovery Network
Swarthmore, PA
1997– 1999

Served as interim site-supervisor in addition to previous responsibilities. Provided training and supervision for clinical staff. Responsible for level-of-care decisions, crisis management, and delivery of all clinical services

Director of Adolescent Services
The Keystone Center
Chester, PA
1994– 1997

Recruited to re-design adolescent unit and implement original adolescent programming. Re-structured and directed adolescent inpatient program and developed adolescent day program. Supervised clinical and adjunct staff. Provided in-house training and presentations at area schools and agencies. Achieved 3-fold increase in adolescent admissions.

Adolescent Program Director and Therapist
Advantage Recovery Network
Swarthmore, PA
1991– 1994

Co- created this unique intensive outpatient program for substance abusing and dually-diagnosed adolescents. Implemented original programming materials, developed BDAP-approved assessment instrument. Responsible for delivery of all adolescent clinical services and crisis management. Provided training and supervision for clinical staff. Invited presenter at area schools and agencies.